I have been married to Ethel for over 50 years. We have two children, Sarah and Andrew, and two grandchildren, Katelyn and Trevor.

What excites me about The Met's mission...

What excites me is that we at the Met desire for everyone that attends the Met will come to know Jesus as their Lord and Saviour and that they will grow closer to Him and allow Him to minister through them and us to others. Doing life together through small groups is so helpful in our spiritual and life journeys.
